ONE-DAY INTERNATIONAL SEMINAR ON
'EMERGING TRENDS IN MATHEMATICAL SCIENCES & ITS APPLICATIONS' (ETMSA-2024) 19 FEBRUARY, 2024

About the Seminar:

The purpose of the seminar on 'Emerging Trends in Mathematical Sciences & Its Applications' is to motivate the undergraduate students to improve their knowledge and awareness about the recent trends in research of several branches of mathematics and its applications. The seminar aims to motivate the students after graduation for project works, collaborative researches with different prestigious institutions throughout the world. The participation of the students is therefore necessary which will further motivate them to involve themselves with the research world.
